Complaint.

1, on or about June 29/2012 I went to apply for a position of a taxi cab driver. while there approached by the supervisor he informed me the taxi driver is difficult for me and I explain to him that job I can do it and I have no problem performing the job he was advised me that was not qualified for the position & I applied.

by observed my disability he changed his mind he explain he didn't have open & he didn't tell me any requirement for the position.

2, on or about July 17 2012 I returned to yellow cab to again follow up on a job & again I was advised by the supervisor told me to leave the premises & that he would call security to escort me & to not return.

3, no reason has been given to me for the denial of hire

4 I believe I have been discriminated against due to my disabilities w/c in violation of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1991, as Amended.
